COUNTRY Germany (Soviet Troops in Parchim TOPIC Servict Troops in Parchim DATE PREPARED 26 harch 1952 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYFE) 25X1 1. On 5 harch, the Alto Kaserne on Kerl Harkstrasse in Parchim (E 54/7 7h) and the dwelling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least of the country of the country indigrie, and black-bordered black equalets, with sixnal or artillery indigrie, and black-bordered black operates, including some with signal insigning roups, each of should be equalets, including some with signal insigning roups, each of should be encountry and the country of t	5	WIELLOFAY TO PASSE FOR THE NAME OF THE PASSE
DATE PREPARED 26 Harch 1952 PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 1. On 5 Harch, the Alto Kaserme on Karl Harkstrasse in Parchim (E SL/T 7%) and fawelling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,600 non. Some were read-bordered black equalities, with sixal or artillery insigning, and black-bordered black opaulots, including some with signal insigning insigning and black-bordered black opaulots, including some with signal insigning roups, each of about 15 men, were seen engaged in drill in the installation to 60 men equipped with entraching tools were seen leaving the installation to the training area south of framewalles, Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with of men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with of men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with single boxes were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with single boxes were seen entering the installation, After comparing an unit of flags, About 60 colders committed by about 1,500 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black equallets, including some with tank including. Intensive fatigue duty but no training; was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six non practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation, About 200 men were seen crewling by groups in the are father south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Barnerweg, on the oar north by the Parchim-Cohverth railroad line and on the west by the firing reach of the arricles, Four 76,2-m artillory pieces with 1 Schifter and is north of the airfield, Four 76,2-m artillory pieces mith 1 Schifter and is north of the airfield, Four 76,2-m artillory pieces mith 1 Schifter and is north of the airfield, Four 76,2-m artillory pieces mith 1 Schifter and is north of the airfield, Four 76,2-m artillory pieces mith 1 Schifter an		Germany (Soviet 4008)
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 1. On 5 March, the Alte Kaserne on Karl Marxstrasse in Parchim (M. 5M/T 7M) and twilling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,000 men. Some were red-bordered black equalets, with signal or artillery innigria, and black-bordered black equalets, including some with signal insigning in a some were red-bordered black equalets, with signal or artillery innigria, and black-bordered black equalets, including some with signal insigning in the installation of the some search of the woods at Nuchiolo. Alter search of the woods at Nuchiolo. Alter search capture and the installation to the training area south of Prunnenalles, Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen negaged in range estimation, range finding and training with simen were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with simen were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with simen were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with simen constructing lines. Trucks process were seen entering the installation. After boing unrounded, they drove on the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later. 2. On 5 Sarch, the Neue Kaserne wost of Karl Marxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 1,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black equalets, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Proops in groups of about six non practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southment of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the area farther south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Barnerweg, on the ear north by the Parchin-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing r is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-am artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-am artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-am artillery pieces with 1 of		Scriet Troops in Parchim
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 1. On 5 March, the Alte Kaserne on Karl Marxstrase in Parchim (M. 5M/T 7M) and twilling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,000 cms. Some wore read-bordered black egaulets, with signal or artillery innignia, and black-bordered black egaulets, with signal or artillery innignia, and black-bordered black egaulets, including some with signal insignations of rifles and machine gan fire was heard from the woods at Nuchholz. At 60 men equipped with entraching fools were seen leaving the installation to the training area south of brunnenalles, Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen engaged in range estination, range finding and training with simen were seen engaged in range estination, range finding and training with simen were seen engaged in range estination, range finding and training with simen were seen entering the installation. After being unrounded, they drove on the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later. 2. On 5 Sarch, the Neue Kaserne wost of Karl Marxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 1,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black equilities, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Proops in groups of about six non practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southment of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the area farther south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Barnerweg, on the ear north by the Parchim-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing a is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-am artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-am artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north by the Parchim-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing a north by the Parchim-Schwerin salvoad on the south by Barnerweg, on the ear north by the Parchim-Schwerin salvoad on the south by Barnerweg, on the ear north by the Parchim-Sc
1. On 5 Earch, the Alte Kaserne on Karl Harxstrasse in Parchim (E 54/7 74) and fowelling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,000 nen. Some wore red-bordered black epaulets, with simal or artillery innignia, and black-bordered black opaulets, including some with signal insigning groups, each of about 15 men, were seen engaged in drill in the installation of the rathing area south of Framenallae, Six groups each consisting of 33 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with sim the training area south of Framenallae, Six groups each consisting of 33 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with sim flags, about 60 soldiers expension cable reds and field telephones were seen constructing lines. Tracks boxes were seen entering the installation, After soing unrounded, they drove to in the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later. 2. On 5 Earch, the Heue Kaserne west of Karl Earxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 4,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black oppulets, including some with tank insignia, Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Thoops in groups of about six non practiced with 8 x 80-m; norters, and about 100 non were seen of again in an practiced with 8 x 80-m; norters, and about 100 non were seen danged in air practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the are north by the Parchia-Schwerin railroed line and on the west by the firing re is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-m artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-m artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-m artillery pieces with 1 officer and cash were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen in the training area of them were seen there. Barakks installa		_DATE PREPARED26 Harch 1952
1. On 5 Earch, the Alte Kaserne on Karl Earxstrasse in Farchim (E 54/7 74) and fowelling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,000 nan. Some wore red-bordered black epaulets, with simal or artillery innigrin, and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insignal madigning, and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insignal for one of rifles and machine gun fire was beard from the woods at Buchholz. A 60 men equipped with entraching tools were seen leaving the installation two the training area south of Fruncealles. Six groups each consisting of 33 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with signal made on the training lines. Trucks constructing lines fracks about one hour later. 2. On 5 Earch, the Blace Kaserne west of Karl Earxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 1,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black oppulets, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six non practiced with 8 x 00-m nortare, and about 100 non were seen of agard in air practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen creatling by groups in the are north by the Parchin-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing re is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-m artillery piaces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76,2-m artillery piaces with 1 officer and each were seen there. About an oncorrecting field lines. At least 500 soldiers woring red-bordered black egaulets were seen in the training area of them were seen beread bracked and secure seems there are not from the firing ranges.	PAGES	2ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
1. On 5 harch, the Alto Kaserne on Karl Harxstrasse in Parchim (E 5h/T 7h) and fawelling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,000 nem. Some wore red-bordered black epaulets, with signal or artillery innignia, and black-bordered black opaulets, including some with signal insigning in the company of a south 15 men, were seen engaged in drill in the installation to 60 men equipped with entrenching tools were seen leaving the installation to the training area south of Frumenallae. Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with si flags. About 60 soldiers carraine cable rools and field telephones were seen constructing lines. Trucks because were seen entering the installation. After communicated, they drove on the direction of Indwigelast about one hour later. 2. On 5 harch, the Hene Kaserne west of Karl Harxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about h,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black equilets, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six non practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crewling by groups in the area father south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Barnerweg, on the ear north by the Parchin-Schwerin realroad line and on the west by the firring re is north of the artifield. Four 76,2-mm artillary pieces with 1 officer and is soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen there, Tay were cancuflaged with bushes, About 30 soldiers in near 12 light machine guns mounted on bipods, apparently for a rest. Other soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen iteraining area of them were seen there be be bedween that 7,000 to 8,000 men should be quartered barracks installations of 11th Kaserne and News Kanerne.	REMARKS_
1. On 5 Harch, the Alte Kaserne on Karl Harkstrace in Parchim (E. 5h/T 7h) and the dwelling houses adjacent to the barracks area were fully occupied by at least 3,000 nan. Some wore red-bordered black epaulets, with signal or artillery innignia, and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insigning in a machine gun fire was heard from the woods at Buchbolz. At No. se of rifles and machine gun fire was heard from the woods at Buchbolz. At 60 men equipped with entrenching tools were seen leaving the installation to 60 men equipped with entrenching tools were seen leaving the installation to the training area south of Brunnenallee. Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with simel flags. About 60 soldiers corruing cable rocks and field telephones were seen constructing lines. Trickel boxes were seen entering the installation. After soning unreased, they drove in the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later. 2. On 5 Harch, the Neue Kaserne west of Karl Harkstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 1,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black equilets, including sone with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six non practiced with 8 x 80-mm morters, and about 100 non were seen ongaged in air practiced with 8 x 80-mm morters, and about 100 non were seen ongaged in air practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the are farther south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Darmorweg, on the ear north by the Parchin-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing research were seen there. They were canouflated with bushes, about 80 soldiers each were seen there, They were canouflated with bushes. About 80 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen in the training area of then wore red-bordered black		SUBMINION S dwelling houses adjacent to the barrach of the south by the firing rate of the airfield. Four 76.2-ma artillery pieces with 1 afficer and about 500 men equipped with entrenching tools were seen leaving the installation to the training area south of Frumenallee. Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with some were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with some were seen entering the installation, after being unreased, they drove on the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later. 2. On 5 Earch, the Neue Kaserne west of Karl Harxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 4,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black equalities, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six men practiced with 8 x 80-mm mortare, and about 100 non were seen ongaged in aim practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the area farther south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Damneweg, on the each of the airfield. Four 76.2-mm artillery pieces with 1 officer and 6 the new seen there. They were canculated with bushes, About 80 soldiers each were seen there. They were canculated with bushes, About 80 soldiers of them were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen there are barraches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen digging trenches and constructing field by 1,500 men. barracks installations of Alte Kaserne and Neue Kasernes.
dwelling houses adjacent to the barlant states with signal or artillery 3,000 nen. Some wore red-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insigningtia, and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insigningtia, and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insigningtia, and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with signal insigning transport of the words at Buchholz. At 60 men equipped with entrenching tools were seen leaving the installation to the training area south of Frumenallee. Six groups each consisting of 30 to men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with some were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with some were seen entering the installation. After being unroused, they drove in the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later. 2. On 5 Earch, the Neue Kaserne wost of Karl Earxstrasse, was occupied to capace by about 4,000 to 5,000 men and uniformed women wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six men practiced with 8 x 80-mm mortars, and about 100 non were seen ongaged in aim practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the area farther south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Damnerweg, on the each on the year characteristical forms and the installation of the airfield. Four 76.2-mm artillery pieces with 1 officer and 6 cach were seen there. They were cancuflated with bushes. About 80 soldiers each were seen there. They were cancuflated with bushes. About 80 soldiers each were seen there are before and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers were seen digging trenches and cons
by about 4,000 to 5,000 men with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no epaulets, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six non practiced with 8 x 80-mm mortars, and about 100 non were seen engaged in aim practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the are farther south. 3. A large training area which is bounded on the south by Dammerweg, on the east north by the Parchim-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing rais north of the airfield. Four 76.2-mm artillery pieces with 1 officer and 2 each were seen there. They were camouflaged with bushes. About 80 soldiers each were seen there. They were camouflaged with bushes. About 80 soldiers didn't were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen in the training area of them were red-bordered black epaulets. Fire from rifles was heard from the firing ranges. * Comment. It is improbable that 7,000 to 8,000 men should be quartered barracks installations of Alte Kaserne and New Kaserne. Darracks installations of Alte Kaserne and New Kaserne.		3,000 men. Some wore red-bordered black epathets, including some with signal insignia. insignia, and black-bordered black epathets, including some with signal insignia. Six groups, each of about 15 men, were seen engaged in drill in the installation. No. se of rifles and machine gun fire was heard from the woods at Buchholz. About 60 men equipped with entrenching tools were seen leaving the installation toward the training area south of Frumenallee. Six groups each consisting of 30 to 40 men were seen engaged in range estimation, range finding and training with signal flags. About 60 soldiers carrying cable roots and field telephones were seen flags. About 60 soldiers carrying cable roots and field telephones were seen constructing lines. Trucks boxes were seen entering the installation. After being unroaded, they drove off to the direction of Ludwigslust about one hour later.
north by the Parchin-Schwerth faithful from 76.2-mm artillery pieces with 1 officer and is north of the airfield. Four 76.2-mm artillery pieces with 1 officer and 2 each were seen there. They were canouflated with bushes. About 80 soldiers each were seen there gues mounted on bipods, apparently for a rest. Other mear 12 light machine gues mounted on bipods, apparently for a rest. Other energy the seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen in the training area of them were red-bordered black epaulets. Fire from rifles was heard from the firing ranges. * Commentable This improbable that 7,000 to 8,000 men should be quartered barracks installations of Alte Kaserne and New Kaserne.		by about 4,000 to 5,000 men and unity state and the property of about 1,000 men with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no equilets, including some with tank insignia. Intensive fatigue duty but no training was noticed in the installation. Troops in groups of about six men practiced with 8 x 80-mm mortars, and about 100 men were seen engaged in aiming practice, marching, and running an obstacle course in the area southwest of the barracks installation. About 200 men were seen crawling by groups in the area farther south.
X1 Comment. It is improbable that 7,000 to 8,000 men should be quartered barracks installations of Alte Kaserne and Neue Kaserne.	3	A large training area which is bounded on the south by Darmerweg, on the east and north by the Parchin-Schwerin railroad line and on the west by the firing ranges is north of the airfield. Four 76.2-mm artillery pieces with 1 officer and 2 men each were seen there. They were camouflated with bushes. About 80 soldiers stood near 12 light machine guns mounted on bipods, apparently for a rest. Other soldiers were seen digging trenches and constructing field lines. At least 500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were seen in the training area. All of them were red-bordered black epaulets. Fire from rifles was heard from the barracks installations of Alta Raserne and New New Property of the New Property of the Propert		firing ranges. *
and a semilable information tends to indicate that, as all as a semilable information tends to indicate that,		Comment. It is improbable that 7,000 to 8,000 men should be quartered in the barracks installations of Alte Kaserne and Neue Kaserne. The Alte Kaserne had been occupied by 1,500 men. and Neue Kaserne had been occupied by 1,500 men. The Alte Kaserne had been occupied by 1,500 men.
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY) / I

Approved For Release	2006/04/20 .	CIA-RDP82-00	457R011500040007-	7

SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY	25X was 2 with

also by the reference report, only units of the 60th Necz Regt of the 13th Necz Div are stationed in the barracks installation. The other units located there could not be identified. The area north of the airfield probably belongs to the post training field.

SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY